

Ralph Dolfi, DMD

Dr. Ralph Dolfi practices general dentistry in Cary, North Carolina. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine in May of 1979. Dr. Dolfi began his career in the state of North Carolina working with handicapped patients; collaborating with a local psychologist, they published several papers regarding dental care for these specific need patients. After 4 years, his focus changed to solo private practice which he enjoyed for 16 years.

Always garnering a thrill from the teaching aspects of his profession, Dr. Dolfi then became an adjunct professor at the School of Dentistry in Chapel Hill. In 2002 he went back into private practice and has since received advanced training at numerous top cosmetic dental institutes. Dr. Dolfi has become extremely active in many phases of orthodontics in his family practice, and also has served as a clinical instructor for Six Month Smiles for the past 8 years. As a practitioner, always willing to explore new challenges, he has found The Healthy Start program to be an exciting and truly cutting edge treatment for his younger patients.

Dr. Dolfi and his wife Karen have been married for 37 years. Since their 3 children are all out and about experiencing the challenges of life, they currently live together in Cary, North Carolina.
